College Station Fire Department Graduates 4th Citizens Fire Academy Class

On June 07, in City Council Chambers, a graduation ceremony was held for participants in the College Station Fire Department 4th Annual Citizens Fire Academy.

Fifteen citizens completed fourteen weekly classes, culminating on May 22, with "live burn" exercises at the Brayton Fire Training Field.

This year's graduates are; Michael Boyle, Paula Casares, Gary Erwin, Scott Greer, Otto Guevera- Rosales, Michael Johnson, Kristi Kaiser, Bobby Maggard, Doris Milam, Carol Prince, Dipankar Sen, Robert Simpton, Sarah Truelove, Melissa Webre, and Angela Winkler.

Most of the 2004 graduates will now join the very active Citizens Fire Academy Alumni Association. As members of the CFAA, the graduates will have the opportunity to join the CSFD "Citizens Assistance Response Team" (CART) and also assist with other Fire Department projects and functions.

Current CFAA board members are: Jan Pfannstiel, President; Kathleen Ireland, First Vice President; Melissa Taylor, CART Vice President; Traci Van Dyne, Secretary; and Cindy Hurt, Treasurer.

For additional information on the College Station Fire Department Citizens Fire Academy, Citizens Fire Academy Alumni Association, or CART, contact Public Education Officer Cindy Giedraitis at 979-764-3712, or on the web at www.cstx.gov
